Sunday of Divine Mercy

April 11, 2021

Act of entrustment

God, merciful Father,
in your Son, Jesus Christ,
you have revealed your love and poured it out upon us in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter.
We entrust to you today the destiny of the world and of every man and woman.

Bend down to us sinners, heal our weakness, conquer all evil, and grant that all the peoples of the earth
may experience your mercy.
In You, the Triune God,
may they ever find the source of hope.

Eternal Father,
for the sake of the sorrowful Passion and Resurrection of your Son, have mercy on us and upon the whole world!
Amen.

17. VIII. 2002 r. Jan Paul E

Pastoral Notes

The legacy of Easter

"These are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name." Tradition is the handing on of this first-hand witness of those who saw it from the beginning to all of us who believe. And we are happy and blessed even if we have not seen yet believe. Our faith is based on witnesses. We cry out with Thomas, "My Lord and my God!"

The gospels in the current form were not originally written as they happened. There was a stage referred to by biblical scholars as the "oral stage", when all the stories and sources of the gospel events and quotations were all handed down orally without the benefit of written documentation. But because the early Christian communities needed a summary or a compendium of the faith in their preaching, the written form of the gospels evolved. But before the gospels were written, the handing down of the faith is made verbally and more so, by the power of the example of Christian witnesses. Think of this: How would our Christianity be today if the gospels were never written, but relied on the power of the example of practicing Christians?

In today's gospel, Christ's act of breathing on his disciples was realizing what he meant by "Receive the Holy Spirit." The transmission of the legacy of the resurrection we celebrate this Easter season involves the breathing of our spiritual life we live. The values of our Christian life are transmitted through the breathing of the spirit of our life and experiences. They are transmitted through the power of our own life. They are handed down through the invisible principle of our thoughts and actions. In a manner of speaking, they can hardly be taught or preached by are easily caught. In our age, it should not matter what kind of house one lives in or how much money we have in the bank or what clothes we wear. Our world will be better for all of us if we have become an example or a model of the values of Christ's kingdom for others, particularly the least. In the end, we will be judged according to how we have shared our values and virtues with others through our relationships. The values we share are what constitute the real legacy of our Christian faith.

Our parish community becomes a vessel, as it were, in handing down our faith to our world and to the next generations. Our community becomes like a showcase or an open book which others read to know and understand our Christian faith. We become witnesses of the faith through the Christian values that guide our lives. Like the early believers "who were of one heart and one soul", as described in the Acts of the Apostles, we as a Christian community have to grow in a unified life with God and with each other.

Fr Edmund's Updates...

With the rising trend in confirmed COVID-19 cases and an increase in the number of variant cases the province has brought us BACK TO STEP ONE as of midnight April 6. While our current restrictions will not change (15% occupancy) this is an important reminder that we must maintain diligence in all our safety protocols, including registering to attend Sunday Mass, always wearing a facemask while in the church, maintaining the required physical distancing and no socializing in the church. We ask that all Sunday Mass attendees pre-register online or through the parish office (403-252-1137). Please cancel your reservations if you are unable to attend to allow us to assign our seat to others. Walk ins will only be accepted during the last 15 minutes prior to Mass and only if cancellations are known.

With the ongoing restrictions we will be continuing our extra Mass schedule (2:30 pm Latin and 5:00 pm English). As such we will not be able to have a Divine Mercy Service this year. Fr. Edmund will pray the Act of Entrustment for Divine Mercy (featured on the front page of the bulletin) at the end of each English Mass this weekend.

There will be an online Baptism Class on May 8, Saturday, 10am to 12noon. Please contact the Office to register.

A lady's earring has been found. Check with the office.

HEALING CORNER "Peace be with you." (John 20:19) In a time of increasing violence in our homes and world, let us not miss the "signs" of those who need our help. The signs may not be physically visible. Victims of domestic and family abuse are wounded in so many ways. Get to know your Church and community neighbors. Be there to support and refer them for help when they need it. Actively pass on the "signs of peace".

THE YEAR of AMORIS LAETITIA FAMILY

Through a series of 10 videos, beginning with the chapters of the Apostolic Exhortation Amoris Laetitia, the Holy Father, with the help of several families, invites us to journey together to rediscover the family as a gift, despite every problem, obstacle and challenge that families have to face today. In the first video "Walking Together" Pope Francis and a family share about the beauty of being a family and how each person is called to lovingly care for the life of the family. Video guide

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

One of the devotions that Jesus revealed to St. Faustina was the "Divine Mercy Chaplet." He said to her, "At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet; or when others say it for a dying person, the indulgence is the same". (Aleteia)
