17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 25, 2021

A message for grandparents and elderly from Fr. Julian Studden.

First World Day for Grandparents & the Elderly

Amid the global pandemic, Pope Francis instituted the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will take place each year on the fourth Sunday in July, close to the feast of Sts Joachim and Anne, Jesus' grandparents. In Canada and around the world, we are invited never to forget our grandparents and elderly persons, cherishing them as essential members of the Church and society.

Fr. Julian Studden, Vicar for Permanent Diaconate, shares this Message of Hope with all grandparents and the elderly of the Diocese of Calgary in this video. Families are encouraged to view and share it with your grandparents and the elderly. View "I Am With You Always" on the Calgary Diocese YouTube Channel.

Pastoral Notes

Sharing our loaves and fish

Miracles happen when we are open to God's word and action. Miracles require that we offer our own loaves and fish which can be our own little contribution, our little talent and our little time for others and for God. Miracles thrive with an open soul, open to God's will and the needs of others. Miracles happen when we believe and hope.

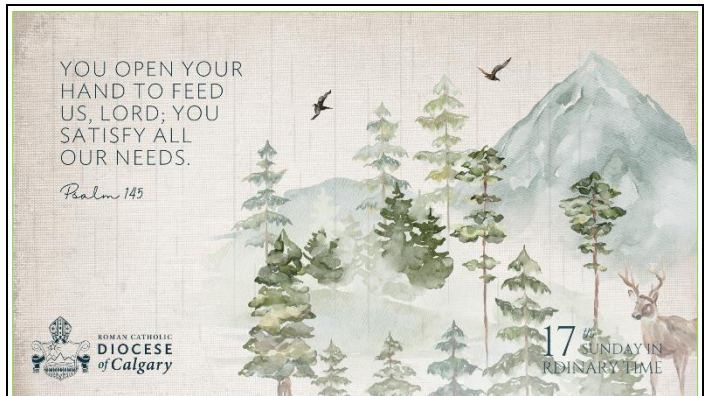

My transfer to St Michael's Church is part of own journey of being open to God's will, as expressed through the of our Universal Church. It is an openness that makes me follow what my superiors require in the spirit of obedience that has brought me here twenty-four months earlier. It is an openness that supersedes personal or particular interests, no matter how important they may seem. My efforts during my rather short-lived ministry with you in strengthening our sense of community is also part of this journey of openness to God's will. The coming of your new pastor is part of his own journey of being open to God's will in his life.

After almost 26 years in this diocese (three years in Holy Spirit in Calgary, two years in Sacred Heart in Strathmore, fifteen years at Sacred Heart in Calgary, three at St James in Calgary and two years here at St Anthony's), I have realized a universal sense of faith and religion. My experience in this part of the world has been a miracle in terms of giving me a wider perspective of what is true, what is Catholic and what is human.

The miracle of the multiplication of the bread and the fish was preceded by the willingness on the part of the disciples, through the boy, to offer the loaves and fish, however little. The miracle is not really about the physical satisfaction of hunger. It is about our willingness to be open to God's will in our lives, to allow the Lord "to make us sit down", to let God help us plan and organize our lives. It is a demonstration of God's generosity when we are generous enough to share our own fragments left over. It is about our sense of sharing that can satisfy our very own deeper hungers. It is about our unselfishness, our own care and concern for others in their hunger and thirst. It is about our own realization of what keeps us from sharing our own loaves and fish: namely, our need for security, the sense of never having enough or our need for comfort and ease.

Miracles happen when we let go and let God in our lives, when we entrust our lives to God and let His will prevail over our own.

HEALING CORNER They all ate and were satisfied. (Lk. 9) In an ideal world...everyone has a roof overhead, clothes on their back, and food in their stomach. Reality shows us that this is not the case. What can we do to feed those in need, both physically and spiritually?

A STATEMENT ON THE COMMITMENT & CONTRIBUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF CALGARY

to Reconciliation and Healing

July 16, 2021

Re: The Commitment and Contribution of the Diocese of Calgary to Reconciliation and Healing

Bishop William McGrattan has been in consultation with other bishops and diocesan collaborators to be in solidarity with the Indigenous Peoples and their leaders on the next steps in supporting survivors and in addressing the intergenerational harm caused by the Residential Schools.

The Diocese of Calgary is committed to providing a monetary contribution to a forthcoming local/regional financial appeal. This expresses the commitment of the Diocese to the ongoing work of justice and healing in our country with the Indigenous Peoples and their communities.

The amount of this monetary contribution and the details of the diocesan pastoral plans related to this initiative will be announced in September 2021.

There were 25 residential schools in the Province of Alberta. Four of these operated by the Oblates of Mary Immaculate (OMI) were within the boundaries of the Diocese. The Roman Catholic Diocese of Calgary did not operate any of the residential schools.

Living faith in the secular world

Sam and Caiti Flynn love bringing a Catholic presence into their day jobs. "We can't underestimate the power of trying to set an example," said Caiti. "If you can bring peace into a meeting, or a project, or the way you handle setbacks or stress, I think those things stand out. It plants little seeds and over time people start to wonder what's different about this person."
