Season of Creation | Sep 1 to Oct 4

Pope Francis asks us to pray for creation on Sep. 1 - SeasonOfCreation.org

On the occasion of the sixth anniversary of Laudato Si', the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development invites you to join the ecumenical family in celebrating the Season of Creation that takes place from September 1 (World Day of Prayer for Care of Creation) to October 4 (Feast of St. Francis of Assisi).

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for one hour at St. Anthony's Church on Wednesday, September 1 following the 7PM Mass for the World Day of Prayer for Care of Creation.

This year's theme is "A home for all? Renewing the Oikos of God," and the logo reflects that theme as it's Abraham's tent, which symbolizes "a home for all."

Pastoral Notes

The fullness of Christian Life

The Catechism of the Catholic Church in number 2013 reminds us: "All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity" (LG 40 # 2). All are called to holiness: "Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48).

Therefore, all of us are called to strive to live a life of holiness. We have to make an effort to foster our proximity to the Lord. Thus, God's laws are supposed to bring our hearts closer to Him and to his people in love. In the instances that we do otherwise, the laws become obstacles even to justice and decency in our day-to-day interactions with our fellow humans. In this way, we have to ponder, where are our hearts and what is in them? We hope that when looking at us the Lord would not complain, "This people honours me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me" (Mk 7:6).

Our Christian life should conduct us to holiness, to love God and our neighbour. That is the reason why we need to constantly purify our heart and keep it on serving and loving God and our neighbour, "doing the will of the Father in everything, they may wholeheartedly devote themselves to the glory of God and to the service of their neighbour. Thus, the holiness of the People of God will grow in fruitful abundance, as is clearly shown in the history of the Church through the lives of so many saints" (LG 40 # 2).

The external observance of God's commandments without charity in our hearts can become a hindrance to holiness. Thus, our Sunday worship should permeate everything we do during the week. We must not minimise the profound value of the Eucharistic celebration on Sunday, and the profound value and impact the Sunday Eucharist has for us for the rest of the week.

We need to avoid identifying religion with performing external acts. Going to Church, saying prayers, reading the Bible and giving to charity do not in themselves guarantee holiness. We also have to serve our neighbour; we have to make an effort to perform acts of kindness every day to serve God and our neighbour.

Hence, as a way of service, I invite all of you to bring to prayer the opportunities in which you can serve the Lord in our neighbour, by assisting those who are homebound like the senior residents of the nursing homes of our communities, or proclaiming the Word of God, or helping to distribute Communion at Mass, or bringing food through our monthly hamper program, and through the many other opportunities here at St. Anthony's Parish.

Let us not only pay lip service to the Lord but let us strive for holiness in acting in charitable ways towards our neighbour.

Fr. Pilmaiken's Updates

Pastoral Care We will be resuming our Masses at Chinook Care Centre, Trinity Lodge and Amica Britannia in September. If you are available to serve our seniors on Thursday mornings for the 10:30am Mass at either Chinook or Trinity Lodge, and the third Wednesday of the Month at Amica for an 11:00am Mass, please call the office at 403-252-1137 and speak to Fr. Pilmaiken or Heather.

Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion – Our Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion will begin serving again at all the Masses beginning in September. If you would like to be a part of this ministry serving our parish, please contact Fr. Pilmaiken or Heather at the parish office 403-252-1137.

Funeral Ministry – We have resumed our funeral ministry for those who are mourning the loss of their loved ones. Altar Servers for the funeral Masses and Hospitality Ministers for the receptions are required. If you are available on Tuesday or Friday afternoons, please contact Fr. Pilmaiken or Heather at the parish office 403-252-1137.

SSVP Hamper Ministry – Our monthly food hamper ministry continues to serve 20 – 25 families and individuals in our community who are living with food scarcity and insecurity. If you are available to serve in the morning on the fourth Saturday of the month, please contact Fr. Pilmaiken or Heather at the parish office 403-252-1137.

HEALING CORNER Lord, thank you for my life and all the good things you have given me. Help me to realize that you have created everything and that all I have is from you. May I use all I have to serve others and as a means to come closer to you, the source of all good.

Building an authentic friendship

In her interview with Denis Grady, Jessica learns about building an authentic friendship which comes from the place of love. Having spent a few years building relationships with the Indigenous people, Denis looks forward to his visits. "I'm going there to see my friends, and know we're going to make music and laugh together."

Loving God,

you are kind and caring,
you are wondrous and wise,
you are our friend and guide,
you are our deepest truth.
You bring us together to learn,
to play, to worship together.
Be with us and guide us now and throughout the school year. Amen.

PRAYER: LISA FREEMANTLE AND LES MILLER (NOVAUS)

ROMAN CATHOLIC
of Calgary

As we begin the new school year in September, let us pray for each other and for the whole school family.
