24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 12, 2021

SHARED BY BISHOP BOLEN, ARCHDIOCESE OF REGINA

Prayer for the Election

Lord, father of our human family,

Your son Jesus taught us in the parable of the good Samaritan that each of us is called to care for our brothers and sisters without concern for our differences, or what divides us.

Pour your spirit out upon each and every one of us. Give us, and all involved in the forthcoming election:

- a spirit of humility to acknowledge our failures
- a spirit of gratitude for each of the gifts you have given us
- a spirit of wisdom, to guide our actions in accordance with your teaching
- a spirit of fraternity, so that we might have concern for the most vulnerable
- and a spirit of love, so that we might abide even more fully in You.

Join Catholic Conscience for this free webinar on Wednesday, Sep. 15 at 5 pm MDT - RSVP here: <https://bit.ly/CatholicsAndCanPoli>

For Catholics, the voting process is really just a variation of the process we should use in making all of our life decisions. In voting, we should always:

1. Register!
2. Inform ourselves responsibly concerning (a) the teachings of the Church and (b) issues relevant to the election;
3. Reflect prayerfully;
4. Choose confidently;
5. Vote (polling places can generally be found on the provincial/territorial election registrars' websites); and
6. Once the election is over, stay actively and respectfully engaged with those who have been elected – whether they are our own preferred candidates or not. This is important if we hope to improve our choices in the future.

Pastoral Notes

Take up your Cross and follow me

Who is Jesus Christ for the World? He is preached on many street corners, in the marketplaces, publicly and privately. Many in the world see Jesus as a teacher, a guru, a prophet, a nice guy who preached love for God and others, and peace for all. Religion sometimes will not portray Jesus in a proper way, leaving a void about Jesus, that fantasy sometimes fills up.

Who is Jesus for us? Who is He for each of us? As Christians, we believe that He is the Messiah, the Anointed One of God who has come to give us the Good News of salvation. He is the Way and the Life to all of us. But the Way Jesus teaches us is not an even and smooth path. The path Jesus shows us is a path of denying oneself, a path that comes with a cross, losing oneself for his sake.

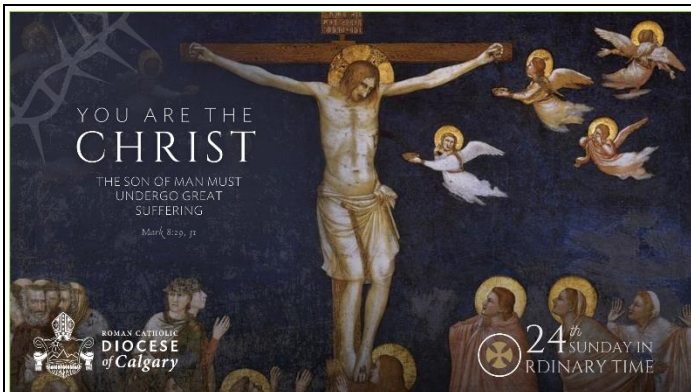

For us, Christians, Jesus Christ invites us to take up his Way. However, it is not enough to know the Way of Jesus, for what merit is there if we only know the way to life and never follow it? Knowledge of his Way doesn't give us the assurance that we will experience the life Jesus promises. St. James invites us to ponder, "What good is it if you say you have faith but do not have works??" (Jam 2:14). Our belief in Jesus without good works has no power to save. Our faith in Jesus goes hand in hand with the works we perform. Faith is the root of good works, a root that produces nothing is dead. Hence, as Christians, we have to bear fruit. Our faith is not meant to be ornamental. As Christians, we have to resemble a fruit tree that bears fruit abundantly. Jesus himself after showing the way of the cross followed it, fulfilling everything that was said of Him: "I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard... I did not hide my face from insult and spitting" (Is 50:6).

Sacrifice is a vital part of our Christian faith, and sacrifice comes by way of works towards our neighbour. To follow Christ is to deny oneself; Christ's sacrifice invites us to sacrifice ourselves and serve our neighbour.

HEALING CORNER

Lord Jesus, you denied yourself for me; you took up a cross for me; you lost yourself for me. With a humble heart, I bring before you my crosses and ask your grace and fortitude to help me carry them. With a heart full of faith in you, I accept the sacrifices to serve my neighbour.
