28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 10, 2021

It's fitting for God's people to offer public thanks for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also wants us to share the goods of the earth with all people. (Ordo 2021).

Pastoral Notes

Thanksgiving

Although we always have to be thankful to God for His many blessings, benefits and graces, Thanksgiving offers us an opportunity to make a conscious gesture of gratitude for all we receive.

Father in Heaven, Creator of all,
and source of all goodness and love,
please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks.

Thank you for all the graces and blessings

You have bestowed upon us,
spiritual and temporal:
our faith and religious heritage,
our food and shelter, our health,
the love we have for one another,
our family and friends.

Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity,
please grant us continued graces
and blessing throughout the coming year.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Canadian Bishops Plenary Meeting September 20–24 2021

As part of the regular proceedings of the meetings, the Plenary began with a message to the Holy Father, followed by the President's Report on the Conference's activities over the previous year. The new Apostolic Nuncio to Canada, the Most Reverend Ivan Jurkovic, delivered greetings to all Bishops on behalf of Pope Francis. For a second year in a row, COVID-19 was an important topic of discussion, its impacts and the present-day realities of the Church in Canada as well as the universal Church. A special virtual presentation on the activities of the Vatican's COVID-19 Commission was delivered by His Eminence Cardinal Peter Turkson and Sr. Alessandra Smerilli of the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development. The Bishops of Canada were pleased to receive ecumenical greetings by the Most Reverend Linda Nicholls, Anglican Archbishop and Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, which carried particular significance as 2021 marks the 50th anniversary of the Anglican-Roman Catholic (ARC) Dialogue.

Presentations were also provided on activities related to Palliative Care, Maritime Ministry, the Year of Amoris Laetitia Family, the 2023 Synod of Bishops and the expansion of euthanasia/assisted suicide ("MAiD") in Canada. Each year, the Plenary agenda includes time for the meetings of English Sector and French Sector Bishops allowing for discussion on liturgical, catechetical and other pastoral matters which are closely tied to language and culture.

Following the conclusion of the 2021 Plenary Assembly meeting, the Bishops of Canada announced two tangible commitments to walk with the Indigenous Peoples of this land along the pathway of hope as well as to support healing and reconciliation initiatives for residential school survivors, their families and communities: an apology by the Bishops of Canada to Indigenous Peoples and an announcement of a nation-wide collective financial commitment with a target of \$30 million

Canadian Bishops elect new executive

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) held its biennial election to determine the new members the Executive Committee and Permanent Council. The Most Reverend Raymond Poisson, Bishop of Saint-Jérôme and of Mont-Laurier was elected the President, and our own bishop, Most Reverend William McGrattan, Bishop of Calgary, was elected the Vice President.

In The Pope's video for October, Pope Francis asks all people to be missionary disciples in their everyday life, in their daily work, bearing witness to their encounter with Jesus and living with the flavour of the Gospel. Video link: <https://youtu.be/YJIS8qrBSwg>

MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

"Let us pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel."

We are aware that during these difficult times, there are many worthy causes that are in need of our financial help, thank you for choosing to help Feed the Hungry. The guests of Feed the Hungry who line up Sunday afternoons outside of St. Mary's Cathedral Hall appreciate the assistance they receive. The warm bagged meals they receive along with packaged snacks, beverages, and fruits help them find that one meal on Sundays. Feed the Hungry avails Christians and non-Christians alike the opportunity to concretely offer service to others without receiving anything in return except the recognition that individuals and families are on the receiving end of the care packages assembled with love. Bishop's Dinner Co-Chairs Tom and Debra Mauro unite their thanks with the sincere appreciation of Bishop McGrattan for your generous support of Feed the Hungry. Let us continue to pray for one another!
