SELF-GIVING SERVICE

The highlight of the Gospel over the past few weeks is service. This Sunday Gospel is not the exception. We hear this Sunday: "Whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all" (Matt. 20:26). John and James didn't really know what they were asking when requested to sit at Jesus' right and left in the Kingdom.

The main purpose for asking to sit at the right and left of Jesus they were asking for privileges and honours. But the reality is different, as our Lord explains: To share in God's glory, we must be willing to share Jesus' self-giving service to others without counting the cost or seeking his own glory.

Many are familiar with Jesus' call to become a servant to all. Upon observing my mother every day on her morning routine, I observed that she dedicated her life to serving her children, as many mothers and fathers do today. The ministry of those closest to us is a constant reminder that there is no limit to how a person can be in the service of the Lord if it doesn't matter who gets the credit. If we are after achieving personal glory we might be missing the point. It is God who must get all the credit for all the good that we do and for how far we have come in our lives.

Every Christian's motivation to serve must be to constantly give glory and honour to God. The true greatness of a Christian is expressed in the way we serve our brothers and sisters freely.

Our motivation to serve must be focused on the knowledge that we are God's beloved sons and daughters. Not so much on the aspect of earning or becoming the centre of attention, or knowing we will receive a reward. Jesus teaches us that it must always be about our free self-giving to others and God.

Jesus came to serve and to give everything for our sake. He is the paradigm we are to follow for he shows us that there is greatness in service.

"When you are in the service of your fellow beings you are in the service of God." Anonymous

Missionary Discipleship

In October, the month during which the synodal process begins and World Mission Day is celebrated, the Holy Father explores in depth the evangelizing nature of the church and calls us all to be precisely missionary disciples.

This mission, to which all the baptized are called, is centered above all on being “available to answer His call and to live united to the Lord in the most common daily things—work, meeting other people, our daily duties, the chance events of each day—allowing ourselves to be guided always by the Holy Spirit.”

Being a missionary means seeking out and fostering personal, face-to-face encounters, person to person. In the book-interview “Without Him We Can Do Nothing: a Conversation about Being Missionaries in Today’s World,” which documents a conversation between Pope Francis and Italian journalist Gianni Valente, the Holy Father says clearly that “the Church grows by attraction and by witness.” It’s a matter of living near to Jesus, encountering others: “If you have been attracted by Christ, if you move and do things because you are attracted by Christ, others will notice it without effort. There is no need to prove it, let alone flaunt it.” It’s about incarnating the Gospel in daily life, being a fire that ignites another fire.

Please pray the Pope’s intention for October 2021: We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavour of the Gospel. - Pope Francis – October 2021

Challenge for Humanity and for the mission of the Church

<https://thepopevideo.org/>

“Jesus asks us all, and you as well, to be missionary disciples.”

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

Being available to answer the Lord’s call.

Living united to Christ in daily things.

Bearing witness with our life to knowing Jesus.

Being aware that the Church grows through attraction and testimony.

Development and Peace’s annual People and Planet First campaign is inspired by the words of Pope Francis, who says that “a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” (Laudato Si’, 49). These cries are too often silenced by powerful companies that plunder resources in countries of the Global South, without regard for people’s fundamental human and environmental rights. Many such companies are Canadian.

Act to end their impunity now! Sign the petition (<https://www.devp.org/en/campaign/people-planet-first/take-action/>) asking the federal government to enact laws that will compel Canadian companies to conduct due diligence across their overseas operations and that will give the victims of their abuses access to justice in Canadian courts. Missionary Month Prayer

Dear God,

You have blessed us with your truth. You have guided our lives along the right way. You shower our lives with love.

May we who have received so much from you never cease to announce what we have seen and heard.

May we always be missionary disciples, who proclaim your truth through lives well lived.

May you continue to support our efforts to bring the Gospel of your Son to the world.

May we always tell of your many blessings to those who have yet to experience your love.

In this missionary month, may your whole Church recognize their call to support the work of the missions.

May all your faithful recognize our responsibility to provide for those communities who have only recently come to the faith.

May the voices of your people always reach your altar in heaven as they pray for the missions.

May we always proclaim what we have seen and heard that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life.
AMEN
