Pastoral Notes

God's family

Everyone comes from a family. Some had great experiences in the midst of theirs, others not so great. And yet, all of us belong to the family of God.

So, Family is at the core of the Sunday readings, so much so that the Gospel has such strong teaching about the sanctity of Marriage. In the Christian Marriage, the couple does not promise a material gift to each other, but they promise the gift of themselves to each other forever.

Although a couple gifts themselves to each other, they cannot function unless they are in the midst of a community, where they find support, solace, and friendship; where they are nourished and cared for. The Domestic Church needs the community to flourish, to exercise the beautiful gifts it received from God. Thus, the Christian Marriage is not an isolated institution in society but is part of the community.

On the journey of every family crisis may arise, therefore each of us is responsible for the wellbeing of families. The Church knows that; therefore, many programs are developed to support families: Marriage Encounter, Teams of Our Ladies, Retrouvaille, just to name a few. The bottom line is that we have to care for families and protect their sanctity. Every family is blessed by the Lord. In this year that we commemorate the Year of St. Joseph, protector of the Holy Family, as a community let us entrust all our families to his care and protection.

HEALING CORNER

Blessed God, aid my family members to have peace and unity with each other.

Lord, please help each of my family members accept and practice the core values of our family for the betterment of us all.

Father, please let everybody feel loved and respected in the family.

Let us be dedicated to the good of one another at all times.

Dear Lord, let us not hold on to anger in our hearts for it will lead to resentment, bitterness and even hatred.

Teach us Father, how to solve our conflicts openly, honestly and promptly.

Lord, please help us to be humble enough to admit our failures and to seek forgiveness, love and peace when we have done wrong to others.

Dear Lord, please help each of us to find peace so as to maintain the unity of the family.

It also gives a chance to hear the testimonies of the faithful, who in their day-to-day life make an effort to follow the Lord.

National Day for Truth & Reconciliation September 30, 2021

On Thursday, September 30, 2021, across the country, Canadians observed the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The ongoing journey to healing and reconciliation has a particular relevance for Catholics throughout Canada given the church's involvement in operating many residential schools and recognizing the suffering and intergenerational trauma that remains for many survivors to this day.
