Pastoral Notes

You are my inheritance, O Lord

Every so often the news makes us think of the end of the world. Illness, global warming, disasters, calamities, wars, cruelty make us ponder on the reality of the finitude of our world. Many get caught up in the midst of the somber news. Our natural tendency drives us to worry, to be downtrodden by these sorts of events. But The Lord has a different message.

The Lord urges his disciples and us to not lower our guard, to always be ready, for “of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father” (Mk 13:32). Making an analogy, He encourages us to “learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near” (Mk 13:28).

As followers of Christ, we have to be wise to take every moment of our lives to be ready for the encounter with the Lord. There are many ways to be ready: Praying; receiving the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Confession; practicing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy; ministering to the less fortunate.

Our ministry to the poor, as today we celebrate the World Day of the Poor, is a way to constantly meet our Lord and to be prepared. Pope Francis reminds us: “The face of God revealed by Jesus is that of a Father concerned for and close to the poor. In everything, Jesus teaches that poverty is not the result of fate, but a concrete sign pointing to his presence among us. We do not find him when and where we want, but see him in the lives of the poor, in their sufferings and needs, in the often inhuman conditions in which they are forced to live. As I never tire of repeating, the poor are true evangelizers, for they were the first to be evangelized and called to share in the Lord's joy and his kingdom (cf. Mt 5:3)” (Message of his Holiness Pope Francis for the Fifth World Day of the Poor, June 13, 2021).

The news or the thoughts of the end of the world should not keep us away from our ministry to the poor and to each other. This time is a time of preparation and readiness. By way of constant preparation, the Christian will proclaim: “You are my inheritance, O Lord” (Ps 16:5).

Don't close your eyes to the persecution of Christians

Prayer for persecuted Christians

O God of all the nations,
the One God who is and was and always will be,
in your providence you willed that your Church
be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants
who are persecuted for their faith in you.
Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ.

Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will,
that we may live in harmony.

Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom,
and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us.

Canadian Bishops invite Residential School Survivors, Indigenous Elders, Knowledge Keepers and Youth to meet with Pope Francis in December

The Catholic Bishops of Canada are pleased to announce that 25-30 First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Elders, knowledge keepers, residential school survivors, and youth will meet with Pope Francis at the Vatican from December 17-20, 2021, accompanied by a small group of Canadian Bishops.

The delegation has been planned through ongoing dialogue with the Assembly of First Nations, the Métis National Council, the Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, and other Indigenous leaders. While specific travel plans and itineraries are being coordinated with the delegates directly, representatives from the Vatican have confirmed that the Holy Father will participate in private meetings with First Nations, Inuit, and Métis delegates respectively to hear their personal stories of the lasting legacy of residential schools. Delegates will also have the opportunity to speak with the Holy Father about their hopes and expectations for his eventual pilgrimage to Canada.

Collectively, the delegation includes participants from across the country, representing multiple faith and linguistic backgrounds. Every delegate brings their own perspective on the history of colonialism and residential schools. Travel and hospitality costs for the delegation will be covered by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. Mental health workers will travel with the group, in recognition of the painful sentiments that may be experienced by many delegates.
