Pastoral Notes

An Act of Faith

“Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury” (Mk 12:43)

This Sunday we are celebrating Catholic Education Sunday. This week, on the eleventh, we remember those who sacrificed their lives for freedom and peace. Next Sunday the Church invites us to remember the poor on the World Day of the Poor.

These three events bring home the aspect of sacrifice, although at different levels.

It is important to recognize that it is thanks to the sacrifice of a teacher, and our parents, that education is received. As Catholics we must recognize the gift of Catholic Education, therefore we have to support it and cherish it, to make a sacrifice for it.

It is important to not forget that it is thanks to the sacrifice of men and women that we are able to enjoy peace in society. Even though there are new forms and ways of waging war in the world, and new devices to upset peace, we must honour those who gave all up for peace and freedom.

It is important to not be indifferent to the needs of others, to look out for those in the peripheries. By making a small sacrifice on our side, with a concerted effort, we can bring some relief to someone who may be in need.

Once I came across the following phrase:

“There is no act of faith more beautiful than the generosity of the very poor.”

The Lord commends the generosity of the poor widow who contributed out of her poverty, a complete act of faith on her part, just as the widow at Zarephath did. Generosity begins as a great act of faith. Teachers, soldiers, and genuine philanthropists, witness for us firsthand the meaning of that great act of faith; they give out of themselves generously as a sacrifice so that others may enjoy the fruits of their loving hearts.

CONSECRATION TO ST JOSEPH Join in on the 33-day journey through The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father St. Joseph throughout November. Purchase your guidebook in the office for $20. I will host group weekly group sessions on zoom on Saturday mornings beginning at 7am. Email secretary@stanthonysyc.ca to receive a zoom invitation.

READY TO SERVE Christmas Hamper season is almost upon us and our SSVF team and the Missionary Families of Christ are gearing up to prepare and deliver 100 Christmas Food Hampers to those in need in our community. When interacting with vulnerable persons it is necessary to register our intent to volunteer, educate ourselves on the issues of vulnerability and creating a safe environment, and obtain a police clearance certificate. Our duty to care is an act of generosity. Please visit our website to guide you through the process of ensuring that you are ready to serve for Christmas hampers, Pastoral Care, Sacrament Preparation and all other ministries at stanthonysyc.ca/ready-to-serve.

MASS OCCUPANCY LIMITS Under the current State of Public Health Emergency, we are required to limit attendance at the Mass to 130 people in the main Sanctuary. In the last two weeks we have been required to lock the doors after reaching our occupancy limit at the 10:30am Sunday Mass. We continue to have extra room in the Sunday 9am and Saturday 5pm Masses. Please consider attending one of these two Masses instead of the 10:30 Mass.

Healing Corner

Lord, I give myself to You and to Your service this day and every day. May I do all I am called to do with great love. Please continue to show me my daily duty and help me to embrace that duty in accord with Your holy will. Jesus, I trust in You.

World Day of the Poor

November 14 2021

In the message for the Fifth World Day of the Poor, entitled "The poor you will always have with you" (Mk 14:7), Pope Francis states:

"The poor, always and everywhere, evangelize us, because they enable us to discover in new ways the true face of the Father. 'They have much to teach us. Besides participating in the sensus fidei, they know the suffering Christ through their own sufferings. It is necessary that we all let ourselves be evangelized by them. The new evangelization is an invitation to recognize the salvific power of their lives and to place them at the centre of the Church's journey. We are called to discover Christ in them, to lend them our voice in their causes, but also to be their friends, to listen to them, to understand them and to welcome the mysterious wisdom that God wants to communicate to us through them. Our commitment does not consist exclusively of activities or programs of promotion and assistance; what the Holy Spirit mobilizes is not an unruly activism, but above all an attentiveness that considers the other in a certain sense as one with ourselves. This loving attentiveness is the beginning of a true concern for their person which inspires me effectively to seek their good' (Evangelii Gaudium, 198-199)." Read the entire message at:

2021-2023 SYNOD
ON SYNODALITY

PRAYER

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), it has been traditionally used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. The version below was specifically designed for the Church's Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.
