THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

MARCH 20, 2022

PRAYER

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Please pray the Novena Prayer daily for Pope Francis' Consecration of Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on March 25, the Solemnity of The Annunciation of the Lord

Pastoral Notes

The Fig Tree

Lent is the time to be humble and look at ourselves with sincerity. The Fig Tree, the parable Our Lord tells in the Gospel, in one way or another reflects each of us. As we go through life, and we examine our relationship with our loved ones, we come to realize that it is like a roller coaster, with ups and downs; with times of intensity and times of indifference; warm and cozy at times, lukewarm and distant at others. Our relationship with the Lord is no different.

Our life will hit spots that are level and smooth, when we feel good and balanced, when everything goes great. Sometimes it will be like rocky ground, it is not quite level, we find dunes, and unexpected obstacles, struggles, issues. At other times we will find that life becomes unbearable, we question God, we find it very difficult. As we swing throughout these times, our life bears little or no good fruit. During these different times of our life, we have to look at ourselves as the Fig Tree.

Even though the Fig Tree does not bear fruit, Our Lord does not look at this Fig Tree and discard it as worthless. Our Lord knows our inconsistencies; therefore He is a God of second chances. His commitment as the tender of the field is to care for this Fig Tree in such a way as to offer it every necessary opportunity to bear fruit. We are the Fig Tree. Our Lord will not discard us and consider us worthless. He will not throw us away, despite our inconsistency. He is always ready and willing to reach out to us in the ways we need so that our lives can once again bear much fruit.

We are almost halfway through our Lenten journey. If we are frustrated by not bearing fruit, by our inconsistency, Our Lord gives us the strength and nourishes us to have the resolution to persevere in His ways.

Do not be afraid to leave your old self behind, but embrace the new you that the Lord is nourishing, so you may bear fruit, and fruit in abundance.

Healing Corner

Lord, I know that I always am in need of Your love and care in my life. I need to be nourished by You so that I can bear the fruit that You desire from me. Help me to be open to the ways in which You wish to nourish my soul so that I can accomplish all that You have in mind for me. Jesus, I trust in You. Amen.

Pope Francis to consecrate Ukraine & Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary | Mar 25

The consecration of Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary by Pope Francis will take place during the Celebration of Penance on Mar 25 (Feast of the Annunciation of the Lord) in St Peter's Basilica.

In the apparition of 13 July 1917, in Fatima, Our Lady had asked for the consecration of Russia to Her Immaculate Heart, stating that if this request were not granted, Russia would spread "its errors throughout the world, promoting wars and persecution of the Church."

For over a decade, Canadian companies have been expected to care for the environment and respect human rights. And yet, the lived experiences of Development and Peace partner organizations demonstrates that existing measures are not effective in preventing human and environmental abuses around the world.
