LAETARE (FOURTH) SUNDAY IN LENT

MARCH 27, 2022

Indigenous Delegations to meet the Pope this Monday

Catholics across the country are invited to join in collective prayer as a delegation of Indigenous survivors, Elders, knowledge keepers and young people travel to Rome to meet with Pope Francis from March 28 to April 1. The journey, organized by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops, represents an important moment in the ongoing journey of healing and reconciliation. As announced in late October, the delegation will also help inform the planned pilgrimage of the Holy Father to Canada at a future date.

Bishop William McGrattan and Edmonton Archbishop Richard Smith are among the Canadian bishops set to accompany the delegates. Please keep them in your prayers.

Pastoral Notes

Laetare Sunday

During Lent, we make the commitment to Pray, Fast and Give Alms. It is my hope and my constant prayer that we were able to maintain these Lenten disciplines which give strength to our body, to our will and especially to our soul, because the spiritual benefits of the Lenten disciplines are countless.

Even though this Liturgical Season invites us to reflect and to repent, to leave behind our old self and renounce to the things that prevent us to have a deeper relationship with God, it is also a Season to find joy. Yes, Joy. Why joy? Because joy is not similar to happiness. Joy, as defined by the Oxford English Dictionary, is success or satisfaction. Even in the midst of trials and challenges, we can find satisfaction.

The Lenten disciplines do bring satisfaction to our life. This Sunday, in particular, as we celebrate Laetare Sunday, we are faced with the challenge of the parable commonly known as the Parable of the Prodigal Son, who after claiming his part of his father's inheritance leads a dissolute life. But when he comes to his senses, he is resolved to return to his father.

Many may find themselves with the same resolution as this man, to return to the Father and say, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son". The Father receives us with open arms, embraces us and welcomes us. That is the joy of conversion, knowing that once again we can embrace the Father. This joy is not momentary, but it is a lasting gift.

The lasting joy is the joy we experience on Laetare Sunday, the joy of knowing that our redemption is at hand and the passion and death of the Lord gives room to the Resurrection, the victory over death. Do not be afraid to leave your old self behind, but embrace the new you that the Lord is nourishing, so you may bear fruit, and fruit in abundance.

WILLIAM T. MCGRATTAN
BISHOP of CALGARY

Re-introducing Solidarity Sunday
5th Sunday of Lent

So what is it? It has been an integral part of Development and Peace-Caritas Canada since 1968. Parishes throughout Canada hold a special Mass and a collection that gives us the opportunity to stand together in solidarity with the poorest of the poor in the Global South – in prayer and almsgiving.

Please note that due to the pandemic Bishop McGrattan asks that we hold this collection, just for this year, over more than just Solidarity Sunday so that more of us will have the opportunity to give.

This Lent we are invited to pray for all those who are the poorest and most forgotten and to give generously at our Solidarity Sunday Second Collection, which will be taken up on the Fourth Sunday (March 27) and Fifth Sunday (April 3) of Lent. Throughout our country our bishops are asking us to support Development and Peace-Caritas Canada in the life-giving work in places such as Honduras, Cambodia, Madagascar – and Ukraine.
