Pastoral Notes

Blessed are you...

Most Christians are familiar with the Beatitudes. They appear in the Gospels of St. Matthew and St. Luke, with each conveying the beatitudes with slightly different words and phrases, which has led some scripture scholars to suggest this was such a monumental teaching that Jesus offered them on two different occasions to two different audiences, allowing this teaching to be heard by many and begin to spread among his disciples.

The beatitudes are read throughout the liturgical year and are often the Gospel reading at a Funeral Mass, as a fitting reminder of how we are all meant to live our Christian lives so that when we breathe our last we can be commended by the Lord for having lived the beatitudes, embraced the blessings they brought in this life and know the reward they bring in the Kingdom which is to come.

We may know the Beatitudes by heart but see them more as suggestions on how to be a Christian and not fundamental teachings that we are obliged to live. They are not easy teachings. Notably the call to be happy and feel blessed when persecution of our faith arises and we are reviled for being a Catholic. Simply put, living the beatitudes is hard but that is what makes them so important, as they compel us to ask God for a greater outpouring of grace to live these teachings well and discover the blessings they promise but are not always readily evident.

Let us each take time this week to read the Beatitudes once again and consider how I am living them at this time.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven..."

Horizons of Hope | Mondays, Jan 16 - 30

Almost 300 participants came out to six locations throughout the Diocese to seek a better understanding of the human experience of dying and death in the 1st Module of the Horizon of Hope series. All are invited to join Horizons of Hope to learn and reflect upon end-of-life issues, as well as to promote the need for excellent palliative care. Next workshops:

- Monday, Jan. 16 (7 to 9 pm) | Discerning and Making Decisions at the End of Life
- Monday, Jan. 23 (7 to 9 pm) | Accompanying Those at the End of Life
- Monday, Jan. 30 (7 to 9 pm) | Supporting and Integrating Within the Wider Community

Join St. Anthony's parishioners at St. Gerard's Church, 8944 Elbow Dr SW.

World Day for Consecrated Life | Feb 4/5

The Consecrated Life, deeply rooted in the example and teaching of Christ the Lord, is a gift of God the Father to his Church through the Holy Spirit.—St. John Paul II: Vita Consecrata 1

PRAYER FOR CONSECRATED LIFE IN OUR DIOCESE

O God our Father, Lord of the harvest, we ask You to send Your Holy Spirit to stir up the grace of Consecrated life vocations in the hearts of many within our parish community. Grant them the willingness and generosity to place their lives completely in Your hands as Religious priests, brothers and sisters, and consecrated virgins. Help us to support them by our own fidelity to Your call to holiness through prayer and Christian service. When You desire that members of our family and friends follow Your Son in this way, grant us the wisdom, love, and insight to support and encourage them to listen to Your voice and follow You without delay. We ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen.
