Pastoral Notes

Welcome Fr John Kohler!

I am excited to announce that Fr John Kohler will be taking care of the pastoral needs of St. Anthony's parish during my time away from May 15-August 13. Fr John is a priest of the Diocese of Calgary and a faculty member of St. Joseph's Seminary in Edmonton, which is also where the seminarians for the Diocese of Calgary live and study. Fr. John is also currently finishing his doctorate dissertation in Biblical Theology at the Gregorian University in Rome. If you ever had a perplexing question about the Holy Scriptures that you were not sure who to ask, I would suggest Fr John to be the right person!

I was delighted when Bishop McGrattan informed me that Fr John had graciously accepted his request to take some time away from Rome to be at St. Anthony's while I am engaged in my own canonical studies. Fr John and I have been friends for many years and had the chance to make a journey to Ireland together back in 2012. This included venturing to some of the remotest parts of NW Ireland and successfully making the hike up Croagh Patrick, among Ireland's most iconic mountains and while not quite of the grandeur of our Rockies, was nonetheless quite the ordeal to summit as we battled strong winds, limited visibility, and unpredictable Irish weather!

Please join me in welcoming Fr John to our parish. He will begin offering Masses at St. Anthony's on May 11th. Please pray for me and the other priests who will be on retreat this week. I will join everyone for the Masses on May 13th and 14th.

God Bless, Fr. Nathan

O name of Mary! Joy in the heart, honey in the mouth, melody to the ear of Her devout clients!

~ Anthony of Padua
