TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 22, 2023

BE THE SPARK THAT TRANSFORMS LIVES. GIVE NOW.

“Hearts on fire, feet on the move” (cf. Luke 24:13-35)

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday, and we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions.

Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

Pope Francis in his World Mission Sunday message for 2023, called for renewed efforts to spread the Gospel. In a world where so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

Pastoral Notes

St. Paul's First Letter

It is believed that the very first letter which St Paul composed, which the Church deems to be inspired by the Holy Spirit and was added into the canon of scripture that would become the authoritative version of the Bible in the 4th century AD, was his first letter to the Thessalonians.

Thessalonica was among the first Greek cities that St Paul visited and preached the Gospel. Soon after his departure, the fledgling church of Thessalonica sought out St. Paul's help to answer questions and address concerns they had about living the Christian life in fidelity to the teachings of Christ. The Holy Spirit inspired St Paul to compose a letter that almost 2000 years later we continue to read as part of the Holy Word of God.

Scripture scholars have noted that St. Paul's first letter is less theologically refined and eloquent than later letters he would compose to the Ephesians, Colossians and Romans. It shows how over the years St. Paul's own theological and mystical understanding of the Faith would grow and his capacity to write on more complex topics about grace, justification, and incorporation into the Mystical Body of Christ, to name but a few, would advance as the Holy Spirit revealed to Him all that he required St Paul to write.

So too must our understanding of the Catholic faith continue to grow and become more refined. We may have been given an excellent Catholic education as children but our knowledge of the faith should not remain with what we only learned in the past. This is why we should seize the opportunities to take part in faith studies within our parish, such as the adult catechism series that Fr Oballo began to lead last week.

May St. Paul inspire each of us to grow in our understanding of the faith!

Anthony of Padua

The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices. He is also afraid when we are humble and good. He is especially afraid when we love Jesus very much. He runs away when we make the Sign of the Cross.

Pray for the Synod of Bishops

ADSUMUS SANCTE SPIRITUS

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.
Amen.

Please pray for Bishop McGrattan and all participants at the XVI General Ordinary Assembly of the Synod of Bishops (Oct. 4-29, 2023 in Rome, Italy).
