Pastoral Notes

Adventures in Canon Law Part IV

After a few years of being a priest, a brother priest asked me if I would ever be interested in doing further studies in some ecclesiastical discipline. I honestly did not have many ambitions to do so, but I did know what I did not want to study: Canon Law.

It would seem the Lord had other ideas and despite my initial reluctance to delve into what we aspiring canonists sometimes call "the dark side of the Good News," these past few years of study have given me a deeper appreciation of the important role that canon law has in the life of the Church to uphold justice, repair scandal, reform offenders, and assure proper administration of the day to day functioning of the Holy Catholic Church as it unfolds.

This summer, I will complete my final three courses and at the end of July take the dreaded hour long comprehensive oral final. Once I know when my final will be, I will let our parish staff know so that I can beseech everyone in our parish to pray for me that day!

I am grateful my time in DC is coming to an end and I ask that you pray for me to dig deep and study extra hard this summer so as to complete my studies well. Fr. John Kohler, who has been with us the past few summers, will be returning to our parish to serve alongside our faithful priests, deacon, parish staff and volunteers while I am away.

A blessed, safe and restful summer to one and all!

O name of Mary! Joy in the heart, honey in the mouth, melody to the ear of Her devout clients!

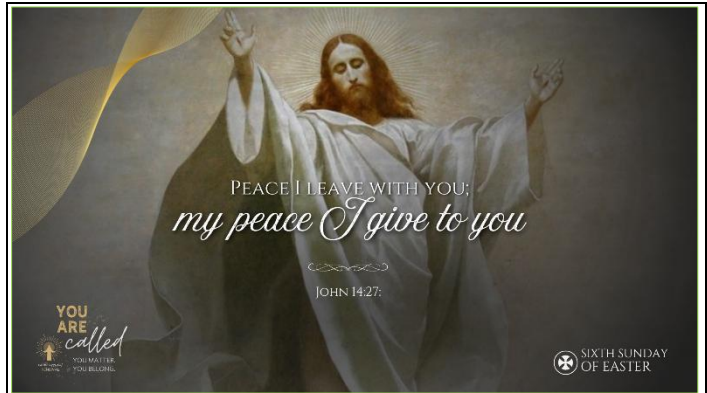

~ Anthony of Padua

Dear parishioners of St. Anthony's,

My name is Aine Ma, and I have been a parishioner here at St. Anthony's my whole life. I am very excited to share with you all that I am leaving on June 7th to join the Discalced Carmelites in Spruce Grove as a postulant. Please keep me in your prayers, as I continue this path of discernment. I would also like to express my deepest thanks to both the English and Latin Mass communities for all your support and love over the years. I have been greatly blessed by your witness of faith and by your unfailing prayer for vocations. You will be in prayers always! May God bless you all!
