Pastoral Notes

The Feast of Faith

As we continue to hear in the Sunday Gospels of the Easter Season the various eyewitness testimonies of the Resurrection, the encounter between Jesus and the Apostles on the shore of the Sea of Galilee to share breakfast together gives an insight into the gift of the Holy Eucharist.

The risen Lord desired to show the Apostles that He would be with them (and the Church) until the end of time in the manifold ways he would be in communion with them. The sharing of some bread and fish on that glorious morning in Galilee was but a foreshadowing of what Pope Benedict XVI called the Feast of Faith, or what we commonly call the Holy Mass. Jesus does not want the glory of his Resurrection to be a mere idea or memory of the past, but a reality we can actual encounter, most powerfully when we receive the Body of Christ and realize that we taking into ourselves the glory of the one who was raised from the dead and will never die again.

Every time we receive the Eucharist is an encounter with the Risen Lord! We rejoice this Sunday as our parish welcomes our first communicants and their families. Let us pray for them that their First Communion is a joyful encounter with the Risen Christ and the beginnings of a life long relationship with Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist.

Short Prayer to St. Anthony,

St. Anthony, teach us to love and care for the poor.

Help us to serve them with kindness and joy.

Guide our hearts
to be generous,
like yours.

Amen.

CCCB Daily Readings

First Reading: Acts 5.28-32, 40b-41
Psalm: 30
Second Reading: Revelation 5.11-14
Gospel: John 21.1-19
