Pastoral Reflection

Practicing Gratitude

Of the many virtues that can be attributed to St. Paul, gratitude is one that continually appears throughout his letters. After his conversion on the Road to Damascus, St Paul never lost his sense of gratitude towards Christ for saving him from the path of perdition that he was pursuing in wanting to destroy the Church, to giving his life over to preaching the Gospel.

This gratitude was not simply manifested when things were going well in his life but also when he encountered profound challenges, disappointments, and deprivations. He shared with the Philippians how he showed gratitude to God when he had little and when he had plenty, when he was well fed and when he was hungry, since God would strengthen him in all that he needed and for that reason he would not lose his sense of gratitude.

St Paul realized that the Christian life was one in which we seek to thank God daily and be grateful for whatever comes our way, and to know the peace that is found in expressing gratitude for all that we have, but also for all that we have not.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving this week, let us all take an opportunity to express to God and others where gratitude is found in our lives. May it be towards those who do a lot for us, but also towards those that disappoint us, for if we can show gratitude towards both, then we can begin to know that same spirit of gratitude that shaped the heart of St Paul.

"The spirit of humility is sweeter than honey, and those who nourish themselves with this honey produce sweet fruit." ~ Anthony of Padua

Parish Renewal Update

St. Anthony's Ministers Attend a Diocesan Conference on Scripture

On October 2nd and 3rd, ministers from St. Anthony's various ministries attended the diocesan Word Conference at St. Mary's Cathedral and St. Mary's High School. There, they prayerfully discerned together how best to answer the following question:

> How do we grow and accompany others in a lifelong journey of discipleship?

Archbishop Paul Andre Durocher was the conference's keynote speaker, and the focus was on learning how to integrate the Word of God into everything that is done at the parish level, including evangelization, catechesis, and faith formation. Please pray for this conference to bear abundant fruit for our parish as our ministers seek to draw more deeply from the inexhaustible well of scripture.

Pastoral Care to the Sick and Homebound

Through the ministry of Pastoral Care to the Sick & Homebound, our parish reaches out to those who are sick, elderly, homebound, isolated, or unable to join us at Mass. By bringing Holy Communion, through visits, prayer, and friendship, we bring the compassionate and healing presence of Christ to those who cannot easily come to us.

If you or someone you know would like to receive this ministry or if you would like to learn more about becoming involved in Pastoral Care to the Sick and Homebound, please call the parish office or speak to our team members after the Masses on October 17/18.
