Pastoral Reflection

Praying the Holy Rosary with Mary

As the month of October comes to a close and we prepare for November, when we especially pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, we might take an opportunity to rekindle our devotion to praying the Holy Rosary.

St John Paul II said the following concerning the value of praying the Rosary:

"The Rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer. In the sobriety of its elements, it has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. It is an echo of the prayer of Mary, her perennial Magnificat for the work of the redemptive Incarnation which began in her virginal womb. With the Rosary, the Christian people sits at the school of Mary and are led to contemplate the beauty on the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love. Through the Rosary the faithful receive abundant grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer."

Since the goal of the Christian life is to one day contemplate the face of God for all eternity in the Kingdom of Heaven, praying the Holy Rosary is a trustworthy way to already ponder the mysteries of Christ as we consider His birth, public ministry, death, resurrection and ascent to Glory, all from the vantage point of Mary as she silently beheld the mystery of the Incarnate Word among us.

Praying the Holy Rosary is also a powerful means whereby we pray for those in purgatory, trusting that each Hail Mary we offer in the rosary will assist some poor soul to undergo the necessary purification they require so as to see the face of Christ in all its splendour.

"Charity is the soul of faith, makes it alive; without love, faith dies."

Prayers for the Faithful Departed

It is fitting that November is the time we pray for our beloved dead. We do so because we believe that our love for them did not end when they departed from this earthly realm, but that our love reaches out to them into eternity, most especially if their souls are in Purgatory, undergoing that necessary purification to be ready to see God face to face in heaven.

Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed – Monday, November 2
